CHURCH OF CHRIST

Sunday Morning: Phil Stroud Sunday Evening: Life Groups

❄️ January 14th, 2024 ❄️

“He was in the world, and though the world was made through Him, the world did not recognize Him. He came to that which was His own, but His own did not receive Him. Yet to all who did receive Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God.”
— (John 1:10-12)

We seem to find what we're looking for, don't we? People are just like that. If we are looking for the "bad" in a given situation, or in a particular person, we will tend to find the "bad." If we are looking for the "good" that can come out of a given set of circumstances, or within a particular person, we will usually find the "good." My grandfather always seemed to be full of fancy little quips that he often shared with me; and a few of them seemed to have lodged in my mind. One of them was, "there is so much GOOD in the WORST of us, and so much BAD is the BEST of us, that it hardly behooves ANY of us to talk about the REST of us!" hmmmmmm...

And then, there's Jesus. What are we to do with Jesus? Most folks aren't even interested in looking for Him and wouldn't recognize Him if they met up with Him face-to-face. Others are so ill informed that, though they've heard of Him, they can't seem to decide if they really believe what they're hearing or not, so they simply remain ambivalent. After all, it's pretty easy to just follow the herd, isn't it—even if the herd IS charging over the cliff! Others, for various personal reasons, choose to neglect Him or find reasons to reject Him, and simply refuse to acknowledge His identity and/or His lordship. Sadly, I fear that, even within the fellowship of the church there are those who only acknowledge Him at a surface level. For them, it's more about practicing their "religion," or just going along with other people's expectations.

But then, what about me and you? What do we see when we look at Jesus? Do we recognize Him both as our Savior and our Lord? And dare we ask, "When others look at us, do THEY recognize Him as our Savior and Our Lord?"

Praying that HE can be seen in us... Phil
